

- Print and cut out these text cards.

A

The _____ in each country that supervise and monitor banks and protect investors are called financial regulatory bodies.

B

Nico and Carol are playing at making a _____. The game is about calculating the money they are going to receive and what they are going to use it for.

C

To make it easier to exchange products and services, money appeared in the form of _____ and banknotes. Pound, dollar, peso, and euro are all names of currencies.

D

Plato said:

"Poverty doesn't come because of the decrease of wealth, but because of the increase of _____."

E

The money that Nico and Carol receive is their income and the amounts they spend are their _____.

F

_____ is just a part of economics. It's the part that tells us all about money. Be careful, it has two faces!

- Print and cut out these text cards.

G

In a country, the _____ is responsible for making the budget.

H

Nico's _____ sometimes offers him a service, like a haircut, sometimes a product, for example, shampoo.

I

The salary of Carol's father and mother is the _____ of their family.
In a company, it's the money from selling its products.

J

In the future, when you get a _____, you will receive a salary. This word comes from the word salt. Roman soldiers were paid in salt, a very valuable product at the time.

Contains K

Carol and Nico receive _____ money from their parents, uncles, aunts and grandparents and they save it.

L

We have _____ if we are able to turn our investments and assets into money when needed. If we don't have it, we could go bankrupt.

- Print and cut out these text cards.

M

_____ or running a house or a family, is one of the most important things you should do in the future. Learning about money helps you to be prepared!

N

Our budget is _____ if our expenses are higher than our incomes. This is called deficit. The contrary is called surplus.

O

If we use a resource, such as money, for a specific purpose, such as buying a car, we cannot use it to buy something else! That is called _____ cost.

P

_____ is shaped like a pig because this animal has always been a sign of prosperity and abundance.

Contains

Q

Our budget is balanced if our expenses and our income are _____.

R _____ are scarce, and needs unlimited. That's why it is so important to learn economic science!

- Print and cut out these text cards.

S

Keeping part of the money I receive to spend it later on, is known as _____.

T

A government of a country gets money to finance itself through _____ contributed by citizens. This is a government's main item of income.

U

Nico played football in the living room and had an _____ expense.
He had to pay for the vase he broke.

V

Honesty, transparency and responsibility are very important _____ related to money. You must earn and spend money in an honest way.

W

_____,
cotton and oil are commodities.

Contains

X

Carol and Nico _____ a comic for crayons. The barter system is based on exchanges that do not involve money. Barter was used many years ago by the Phoenicians.

- Print and cut out these last cards.

Y

Making a budget means calculating your income and expenses during a certain period of time in advance: a week, a month, a _____ or several _____.

Z

People who are deprived of the freedom to think critically and to decide for themselves are _____.

Learn! Knowledge will set you free!

YOU'LL FIND
IN OUR BOOKS SIMPLE
EXPLANATIONS, EXAMPLES, INTERESTING FACTS, COMIC STRIPS AND FABULOUS
ILLUSTRATIONS!

MAKE SENSE OF WORDS THAT
YOU HEAR ON A DAILY BASIS, BUT LIKELY DON'T FULLY UNDERSTAND. BYE, MY FRIENDS!

- To complete your poster, print a bigger logo to paste it on top. Use this one:

